The 1st Choir begins:

 A  s I come  to thē end of the day, I thank you,  Lord,  and I ask that thē eve - ning and the night may be with - out  sin. Grant me this, O Sav - ior, and save  me.

Glory...

 A  s I reach  thē end of the day, I glo - ri - fy you,  Mas - - - ter,  and I ask that thē eve - ning and the night  may be with - out stum - - - bling. Grant me this, O Sav - ior,  and save  me.

Both now...

 A  s I pass  to thē end of the day, I praise you, Ho - -ly One, and I ask that thē eve - ning and the night may be with - out as - sault.

 Grant me this, O Sav - ior, and save _____ me.

The choirs then continue on the following page, chanting,
 "As a bodiless nature, the Cherubim..."
